COURSE DESCRIPTION

A course designed to develop basic playing skills on woodwind, brass, percussion or stringed instruments. These skills include the understanding and practice of basic playing techniques and characteristics idiomatic of both the specific instrument, its history and place in performance and its music.

All private instruction meets on an arranged schedule basis

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Basic playing techniques of specific woodwind, brass, percussion or stringed instruments.
2. Recognize the basic playing techniques, characteristics, performance practices, history and music idiomatic to specific woodwind, brass, percussion or stringed instruments.
3. Critically examine personal practice, rehearsal and performance.
4. Recognize musical concepts necessary to practice, rehearsal and performance.
5. Sharpen aural discrimination of music.

REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS (Text may vary)

Instructional materials will include beginning technique books and/or music as assigned by instructor.

COURSE POLICIES

To ensure the accuracy of records and proper private instructor assignments, the student will consult with the Instrumental Music Director immediately upon enrollment.

The student is expected to be punctual and present for EACH class period and participate in and/or out of class as requested by his/her instructor.

The student is expected to remain sufficiently prepared for each week of instruction. In this regard, each student should consult with his/her instructor to determine an acceptable, regular schedule of self-monitored practice.

Special Accommodations: Students who require special accommodations to meet course requirements must contact the private instructor on their first meeting and provide, as determined by the private instructor, appropriate documentation by the third week of class.

Instructor-Duties:

The instructor will post, as applicable, daily office and/or appointment hours; office and/or home phone numbers; office/rehearsal room number and location. This information, and any future changes, will be posted outside the instructor's office or, in the case of adjunct faculty, outside the rehearsal area. Students are advised to check these locations on a regular basis.

The instructor will provide a revised syllabus to the student, if or when changes must be made to better serve the needs of that student.

Students are encouraged to visit, IN PERSON, with their private instructor when important questions or concerns arise. Students should confine these visits too: (1) The posted appointment hours and (2) The office or assigned rehearsal area. Important visits SHOULD NOT occur in the confusion and distraction of the hallways, before/during/after class or off-campus.

Phone and Email Messages: Every effort will be made to answer phone and/or email messages in a timely fashion. It should be noted however, that since the private instructor's schedule will dictate his/her ability to address these contacts, phone and/or email messages are not appropriate for time sensitive data/information. The private instructor's inability to address phone and/or email messages in a timely fashion does not relieve student responsibility.

COURSE ATTENDANCE

EVALUATION OF STUDENTS

Determination of Grades:

The semester grade will reflect an average of the preparation, progression and performance grade and the final exam. Music for the final will be assigned several weeks preceding the final exam and must be performed in a finished manner. Scales, technical exercises, as well as repertoire, will be a part of the final exam.

ATTENDANCE IN IVC CLASSES

Early College High School and Dual Credit students must show themselves on camera at least once AND turn in that day's classtime tasks to be counted presented.

DROP / WITHDRAWAL

The student is responsible for initiating a drop or withdrawal, not the instructor.

Withdrawal from course: The instructor is not able to withdraw a student from the course after the census date. A student wishing to withdraw must fill out the withdrawal form in MyMCPortal.
